Dear ODSA Members,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to our annual conference. I invite you to take in all of the learning and networking opportunities to help you Cruise to Success.

Dawn Compton and the rest of the conference committee have worked tirelessly to bring you a very impactful event for you to come together and experience professional growth that will help to benefit the students that we serve. I hope that each one of you leave this conference with a renewed wealth of knowledge and inspiration from Oklahoma's many extraordinary and passionate TRIO professionals.

Whether you've been in TRIO for the longest or the shortest amount of time amongst us, thank you for all that you do for our students across the state.

Sincerely,

Kristinia Hicks

March 12, 2024

Greetings ODSA colleagues and guests,

Welcome! I am so pleased you decided to come aboard and join us for the 53rd ODSA Annual Conference, "Cruising to Success," at the Embassy Suites in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. We celebrate everything you do: from helping students embark on their journey to success, to assisting and encouraging students to stay their course while enjoying excursions along the way, and finally, sharing the joy in their academic accomplishments as they start their next voyage in life.

Serving as your 2023-24 ODSA President-Elect has truly been an honor. The knowledge and experience I have gained over the last year are priceless. I sincerely appreciate everyone who attended the ODSA Fall Summit and to all who took part in the ODSA State Initiative with pictures and videos highlighting Oklahoma TRIO students, staff, alumni, and supporters to create an outstanding ODSA video montage.

I am excited to serve as your ODSA President in the coming year. I do not take this honor lightly and intend to keep the ODSA membership first and foremost in all decision-making. I greatly appreciate each and every TRIO professional in the state of Oklahoma and admire your dedication to the services you provide to Oklahoma students. Continue doing great things!

I hope that you will find this conference motivating and inspiring, leaving you energized with new and expanded tools to help you better serve the students in your respective programs. Thank you to the ODSA Board, ODSA membership, and Rogers State University TRIO staff for your unwavering support.

Undeniably, TRIO WORKS because of you!

Sincerely,

Dear ODSA Members and Guests:

I am pleased to welcome you to the Spring ODSA Conference Cruising to Success and want to thank the Conference Committee Members who have worked tirelessly to bring you such an awesome conference experience.

I hope that you will enjoy the speakers as well as breakout sessions and other events that make coming to the conference meaningful. Please take full advantage of spending time bonding with old and new TRIO friends while sharing your professional insight. Sharing our knowledge and past TRIO experiences are an important part of attending conference and can provide valuable insight for others.

I have been honored to spend the past year as the ODSA Past President and want to thank all those who have tirelessly devoted their time to making TRIO and the ODSA organization the best it can be. Those who have had many years in ODSA and TRIO have been invaluable while those who are new have provided a fresh perspective. My hope is that we will continue to build upon what those in the past have created as well as bring in new insight and energy. I encourage all members of the ODSA community to get involved in the organization and share your knowledge.

Once again welcome to the ODSA Conference and the Oklahoma City community.

Sincerely,

Dawn Compton

DR. BRITTON ADAMS | TRIO ACHIEVER 2024

A native of Lawton, Oklahoma, Dr. Adams participated in Upward Bound at Cameron and SSS/McNair at the University of Central Oklahoma. He received his Bachelor of Science in Biology from UCO and graduated from Northeastern State University Oklahoma College of Optometry in 2018. He also completed a clinical externship with Advanced Laser Center in OKC where he was further acclimated to ocular disease and refractive surgery co-management. Dr. Adams is a member of the American Optometric Association, Oklahoma Association of Optometric Physicians, and the National Optometric Association. He practices primary care optometry at Shawnee Vision Source. Dr. Adams and his dog, Hope, call Oklahoma City home. Aside from optometry, he has a passion for voice-overs and dreams of one day providing the voice for an animated character. He also enjoys traveling, spending time with family/friends, and supporting San Antonio Spurs basketball.

ODSA STATE INITIATIVE

TRIO Works Video

CALL TO “ACTION”

OBJECTIVE

To promote and showcase ODSA and TRIO; to advocate for college access and success programs serving individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds in the state of Oklahoma.

BENEFIT

The ODSA Video Montage will highlight Oklahoma TRIO students, staff, advocates, supporters, and alumni. It will provide a fun and engaging overview of the positive role TRIO ODSA plays in the lives of students and their families in Oklahoma because: TRIO WORKS!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Talk to Your Students, Faculty, and Staff

Get the word out about this amazing opportunity to showcase how TRIO Works! Ask for them to get involved.

Create Signs for them to hold

Highlight how TRIO Works for your students and your program through signs and hold them in the photos/videos

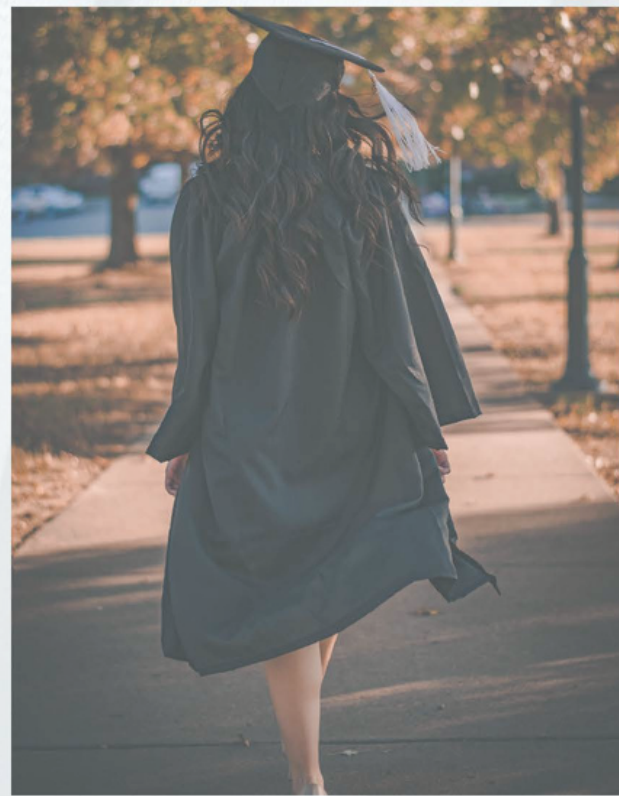

Take Pictures and/or Videos and Submit them

Get Pictures and Videos with people holding the signs or talking/shouting about how TRIO has “Worked” for them. Keep videos to 10 seconds or less. View the link to see an (incomplete) example of what is being done:

SHARLA FROST

Sharla J. Frost is a first generation college student who grew up in Frogville, Oklahoma. She attended Southeastern Oklahoma State University, then Baylor Law School. A highly regarded defense trial lawyer, Sharla defended corporate clients in high-risk cases throughout the United States for more than thirty years. She retired from the courtroom in 2020. She now spends her time representing select legal clients on litigation strategy while also working as an expert witness, keynote speaker, cattle rancher, and author. She is the author of four Amazon best-selling books, including the Frogville Quest series for children and Power at the Table, a business development book.

DR. KYLE STAFFORD

Dr. Kyle J. Stafford became the 16th president of Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College on January 6, 2020. Stafford believes education is the great equalizer. He has devoted his career to making college accessible, affordable, and valuable, especially for first-generation college students who may not have a pathway to advance. Stafford enjoys working and engaging directly with students, ensuring they have the information and resources they need to succeed.

As president, Stafford has established innovative partnerships for NEO, including the Oklahoma Small Business Development Center, which consists of city, tribal and banking institutions, the Kah-Ne Learning Academy, an on-campus daycare run by the Peoria Tribe, and a new fast-track nursing program on the Northeast Tech campus in Kansas, Oklahoma. Stafford earned his undergraduate and master's degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State University before completing a Doctor of Education from Northcentral University. He graduated from the Harvard Graduate School of Education's Institute for Educational Management and maintains his Oklahoma teaching certifications. Stafford is a native of Madill, Oklahoma, and he and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Miranda Matlock and Emma, and one granddaughter, Adeline Fay.

PLENARY SESSION II

DIANE SHUST

Diane Shust is the vice president for public policy at the Council for Opportunity in Education. In this role, she is a COE senior leadership team member. She is responsible for designing and implementing the government relations agenda of the Council and representing Council interests on Capitol Hill and before the U.S. Department of Education, the White House, and other relevant entities. Shust has a deep knowledge of the internal workings and nuances of Capitol Hill. She most recently served as chief of staff in the Office of Congressman Tom Suozzi (D-NY), acting as Representative Suozzi's principal liaison with the House Democratic Leadership and the Committee on Ways and Means.

She previously served as Chief of Staff for Congressman Jim McDermott (D-W) and as Legislative Counsel to Congressman George Miller (D-CA). Shust directed government relations at the National Education Association (NEA) for 16 years. Shust is a former public defender in Washington, D.C. She received her BA in Juvenile Justice and her Masters in Education from the University of Pennsylvania and her Juris Doctor from Georgetown University Law Center.

OWEN TOOMEY

Owen Toomey is the Director of Congressional Affairs at the Council for Opportunity in Education. He brings the stories and importance of the federal college-access TRIO programs to life for federal legislators. After studying Government and English at Georgetown University, he went to work on the legislative staff of Congressman Tom Suozzi (NY-03). Owen brings his previous experiences both on and off Capitol Hill to COE to expand funding for the critical TRIO Programs.

DONTA MILLS

Donta Mills is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He attended Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Business with a focus on Technology and a minor in Management. After completing his undergraduate studies, he pursued a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix. Currently, he is working towards his Doctorate in Educational Leadership from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

Donta has always been passionate about serving students who need assistance. He was excited to work with TRIO students, specifically those in Upward Bound and ETS programs, at Southeastern Louisiana University (SLU). This experience inspired him to join the TRIO community and he accepted a position with the TRIO programs at SLU.

Over his 20 years of experience in TRIO, 15 of which he served as a professional and four years as a part-time employee, he has relied on his leadership abilities, adaptability, and willingness to get involved to achieve success. These qualities helped him secure important positions such as Assistant Director of UB II at Baton Rouge Community College, LASAP President, and SWASAP President. With a strong passion for leadership and professional development, self-care, and advocacy, Donta remains a servant leader who helps everyone he meets achieve success both personally and professionally.

PLENARY SESSION III

TOM COLE

A fifth-generation Oklahoman and resident of Moore, Tom Cole has a significant background of service to his home state of Oklahoma. Currently serving in his tenth term, Cole was first elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 2002. He is an ardent supporter of a strong national defense, a tireless advocate for taxpayers and small businesses, a leader in promoting and funding biomedical research and the foremost expert in the House on issues related to Native Americans and tribal governments. Since 2009, Cole has served on the powerful House Appropriations Committee, where he is currently Vice Chairman of the full committee and Chairman of the Subcommittee on Transportation, Housing and Urban Development. Cole was appointed to the House Rules Committee in 2013 and has remained on the panel since then. He currently serves as Chairman, the top Republican leadership position on the committee. Cole also serves as a Deputy Whip for the Republican Conference and sits on the House Republican Steering Committee.

DR. MIKE DAVIS

Dr. Mike Davis is an Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at Southeastern Oklahoma State University, where he also serves on the Executive Team as the Special Assistant to the President for Compliance. As a TRiO Upward Bound Math/Science Alum, Dr.

Davis was a first generation college graduate, who has spent his entire career in postsecondary education after obtaining a law degree from the University of Oklahoma and later obtaining a Ph.D. in leadership from the University of the Cumberlands in Williamsburg, KY. Dr. Davis has served on the Board of Governors of the Oklahoma Bar Association, and is currently an Associate Member of the Oklahoma Board of Bar Examiners. He is an active behavioral science researcher in emotional intelligence, affective science (the study of emotional experience), and the connection between empathy and effective organizational leadership. Davis spoke as a student speaker during TRiO Day at the state capitol in 2007 and continues to be a passionate advocate for assistance and mentorship to students with disadvantaged backgrounds. Dr. Davis is a designated mentor in the McNair Scholars program at Southeastern Oklahoma State University, and a mentor in the John Massey Leadership Scholars program.

Breakout 1 First Generation Initiatives on Campus

Presenter Name: Jennifer Hernandez-Reyes and Kenia Maldonado 10:45AM-11:30AM
Organization: OSU-OKC SSS-Project SOAR Room C
Target Audience: Student Support Services

This workshop is designed to support programs aiming to facilitate the transition to college for first-generation students. Tailored events concentrating on the unique needs of first-generation students will foster familiarity with the college environment and assist in navigating the challenges of college life. Presenters will address frequently asked questions about establishing first-generation initiatives, providing valuable insights and guidance.

Breakout 1 ACT vs the Digital SAT: Which is Best for your Students

Presenter Name Yuval Trachtenberg 10:45AM-11:30AM
Organization Academic Tutoring & Test Prep Room D
Target Audience: Talent Search, Upward Bound, Upward Bound Math/Science, Educational Opportunity Center

Standardized test scores still matter. Although colleges and media are telling our students that test scores are optional, they are leaving out the most important information – a decent test score and a decent GPA means lots of scholarship dollars for our students. Come learn the difference between the ACT and the new Digital SAT. You will learn the different strategies each test requires as well as which test is best for your students. Let's get your students the most scholarship dollars possible!

Breakout 1 Universal FAFSA

Presenter Name: Kelli Kelnar & Theresa Shaklee 10:45AM-11:30AM
Organization: Oklahoma College Assistance Program Room E
Target Audience: All TRIO Programs

Beginning with the 2024-25 school year, students must submit the FAFSA to graduate from an Oklahoma public high school. Join us to learn about the requirement, why it's important, and what it means for you and your students. This session will also introduce you to the Oklahoma FAFSA Data Portal, an online platform where your schools can see FAFSA progress for their seniors in one place. In addition to the law and tracking resources, we'll share Oklahoma's long list of free resources to support your FAFSA completion efforts.

Breakout 2 Brain Friendly Higher Education Organizations – Safe Space for Learners

Presenter Name: Dr. Ed Cunliff
Organization: UCO, Adult Education & Safety Science
Target Audience: All TRIO Programs

1:15 PM-2PM
C.A. Vose

Excitement and fear can fill a learner's brain from the first moment. This session looks at MBHE (mind brain health education) approaches to creating a learner friendly climate. MBHE research and practice have evolved greatly in the past 30 years. Learners may experience what is called "the amygdala hijack" that inhibits learning. This session offers a set of strategies used to help students feel safe and at ease in new learning environments. These approaches are employed by staff and faculty to 1) consider their role in creating organizational climate, 2) options for creating a positive and safe environment, and 3) to help them create their own brain friendly strategies to reduce the amygdala hijack.
